

Tuition and Fees

Cost of Attendance for International Students 2020-2021

The following is an estimate of expenses for an international student to attend SUNY Broome Community College as a full-time student for one academic year (two semesters), not including optional summer term:

Tuition and Fees - $10,800
Other Expenses - $ 3,400
Living Expenses - $ 9,800 – estimated off campus

Total - $24,000 USD

Living expenses for on campus housing would be $11,302 making the total $35,302

International Students must show this amount in sponsorship or personal/family savings in order for SUNY Broome Community College to issue the Certificate of Eligibility (I-20) that is required when applying for an F-1 student visa/status. International Students are NOT eligible for Financial Aid. If the I-20 is changed due to Extension, internal transfer, reinstatement, a new (current) bank statement and Declaration of Financial Support must be given.

For more information on general costs of books, supplies and other expenses, please visit the SUNY Broome Expenses page of the online catalog.

Health Science students should be aware that there may be additional costs each year above and beyond the estimated costs above for major related costs such as medical clothing, instruments, etc. These costs will vary from program to program within the Health Science majors and may range from $250 to $2,400. (These are estimates only. Your program will provide you with current costs associated with your program when admitted into the program.)

Tuition and Fee Deposit for International Students

International Students are required to pay a $750 deposit, refundable, to hold their place at SUNY Broome Community College; this is due each semester prior to registration. Information and further details on payment options are given upon acceptance.

Special Note - Dependents

If you will be bringing a spouse/child(ren) with you as Dependents (F-2 Status), you will be required to provide an additional $3,000 USD per dependent in sponsorship proof AND submit a Dependent Information Form.

Tuition and fees are subject to change.
