

Meet the Tutors in Liberal Arts

---

Peter Kennedy

My name is Peter Kennedy, I am originally from the Pocono Mountains in Pennsylvania, and my passion is all things history! After graduating from SUNY Broome in 2019, I went on to Binghamton University, where I studied European History with a focus on the Middle Ages. Although the Middle Ages is my specialty, other areas of interest include pre-industrial Europe, Canada, and the United States. Currently, my wife is finishing her Ph.D. in Neuroscience, and after completion, we will move to Ireland.

Emma

Leonard

My name is Emma Leonard and I hope to go into the field of veterinary medicine. My favorite courses are English and science! In my free time, you can find me at home, with my dogs, watching Gilmore girls.

Kayla Wyckoff

My name is Kayla Wyckoff. I am a liberal arts major hoping to go into the educational field. My favorite subject is math.

I play soccer for the hornets. In my free time I tutor, willing to help any who need it!
